The simonpure Hunterian black-and-tans are to carry the party banner at the ensuing election. There is fitness is this. If Radicalism is to win, let it win squarely on Radieal principles and Radical men, and not through a combination of mongreis and mistaken Conservative support. Beaumont, Tomeney and Shaw will doubtless take their revenues by working secretly moot, Tomeney and Shaw will doubtless take their revenges by working secretly against Beecher. Some of their satellites will vote for Fitch whose chances are thereby increased. Some will vote for the Conservative candidate, and some will not vote at all. In the Brownlow Council—a black Loyal League—on last Tursday night, Beaumont denounced Beecher as utterfy incompetent for the office of Mayor, and not only reflected on his capability, but on his honesty. This led to a terrible row—such a row as provided in the Constitution in the case
